8. "That Seanad Éireann:

recognising:

- tourism revenue dropped by €1.1bn in 2009 to €5.2bn, its lowest level since 2004;
- overseas visitor numbers fell by close to one million in 2009 compared to 2008;
- Ireland's largest tourism market, the United Kingdom, declined by 16%;
- access to Ireland has become worryingly restricted with the ongoing removal of routes and restrictions in airline capacity at both Shannon and Dublin airports;

considering:

- the introduction of a departure tax was short-sighted, counterproductive and a deterrent to the survival of the tourism industry;
- the yield from the departure tax in 2009 at €84.4m was a counterproductive measure considering the overall drop in tourism revenue;

— other European countries such as Belgium, Denmark, Holland, Spain and Greece have moved to reduce airport charges and withdraw tourist taxes in an effort to boost tourism; and calls on Government to immediately abolish the departure tax.”.

[22 June, 2010]

Leasú:

Amendment:

1. To delete all words after “Seanad Éireann” and substitute the following:

“welcomes:

- the progress made to date across a broad range of Government policies and programmes which serve to enhance significantly the protections afforded to the Irish environment;
- the intention to publish, shortly, the Heads of the Climate Change Bill 2010, which will provide a statutory framework for the core national priority of major and continued reduction in greenhouse gas emissions in the context of transition to a low carbon economy;
- the suite of legislation introduced since 2007 to protect and improve water quality including giving statutory effect to the Water Framework Directive and the Bathing Water Directive; establishing an authorisation system for waste water treatment plant discharges; regulating for best practice in the management of nutrients in the agricultural sector; and supporting the enforcement of strengthened regulations governing the supply of drinking water;

- the adoption of the first cycle of River Basin Management Plans to protect and improve water quality on a river basin district basis;
- the Water Services Investment Programme 2010-2012 supported by funding of over €500 million for 2010, building on similar levels of investment in recent years and reflecting environmental priorities identified on a River Basin Management Plan basis;
- the continuing funding commitments to the EPA and local authorities towards the costs associated with environmental enforcement related activities;
- the progress made to date in dealing with industrial legacy sites in a manner consistent with good practice and minimisation of risk to human health and the environment; and
- the continued commitment to achieving the full delivery of those commitments in the renewed Programme for Government designed to support the objective of ensuring a high quality, robustly protected Irish environment.”.
