10. “That Seanad Éireann:

notes with concern that:

- Ireland has suffered the longest and deepest recession of any euro-zone country because of reckless domestic management of the economy;

- investment, consumption, employment and living standards continued to decline in the first quarter of this year;
- the seasonally-adjusted numbers of the Live Register rose by a further 5,800 in June and the actual number claiming now exceeds 450,000 for the first time ever;
- the Government plans to cut a further €14 billion from investment spending in between 2011-14 compared with the original commitments in the National Development Plan;
- the estimated taxpayer losses from the Government's banking strategy has reached €25 billion and is rising, even as it has failed to restore credit availability to industry; and
- market confidence in the Government's economic plan is declining, as evidenced by the rising gap between Irish and German borrowing costs.

Calls on the Government to:

- recognise that its economic plan is failing to undo the loss of international financial market confidence in Ireland;
- put jobs and industry growth at the centre of its economic strategy;
- review its banking strategy to limit the taxpayers' exposure and to focus resources on supporting new lending to viable businesses;
- delay further cuts to investment spending until employment starts to recover; and
- restructure and re-capitalise the semi-state utilities in order to raise the necessary commercial funding to accelerate investments in water, high speed broadband and clean energy.”.

Amendment:

1. To delete all words after “Seanad Éireann” and substitute the following:

“commends the Government for:

- its management of the economy which means that Ireland has emerged from recession with the strongest GDP growth rate of the euro area in the first quarter of this year;
- the policies it is pursuing to maintain credibility and sustainability in the public finances, which have been recognised internationally;
- the initiatives taken by the Government to preserve the stability of the banking system and to address the issue of asset quality in the banking system through strengthening the banks balance sheets in order to facilitate the flow of credit to viable borrowers and thereby underpin economic recovery;
- the measures taken to protect employment including the Stabilisation Fund, the Temporary Employment Subsidy and the PRSI Exemption scheme with the result that employment levels remain at nearly 1.9 million people, which is about half a million more than in 1997;

- the measures taken to provide additional opportunities in education, training and work placement for the unemployed to assist them in returning to the labour market;

and notes that:

- confidence has improved and spending on discretionary items such as cars has increased;
- the Government has kept spending for investment at high levels relative to national income by international standards;
- the public finances are stabilising and are generally in line with expectations for this point in the year;
- whilst the labour market has deteriorated significantly recently, nearly 1.9 million people are still in employment, which is about half a million more than in 1997;
- virtually all OECD countries have experienced major economic and financial difficulties over the past two years or so;
- notwithstanding volatility on foreign sovereign debt markets, the NTMA has at the mid year point, raised over 80 per cent of the funding requirements for 2010 and we are in a comfortable position with regard to funding this year and even if we did no further borrowing this year, existing cash reserves would cover our borrowing requirements for the remainder of the year;
- the Government through its ongoing management will continue to address the economic, fiscal and banking sector issues facing the country over the coming years in a responsible and sustainable manner.”.

notes with concern that:

- Ireland continues to suffer the longest and deepest recession of any euro-zone country because of reckless domestic management of the economy;

- Consumer spending, output, employment and living standards continued to decline in the second quarter of this year;
- the seasonally-adjusted numbers of the Live Register rose by a further 21,500 in the period April to August and the actual number claiming the dole now exceeds 466,000 for the first time ever;
- the estimated taxpayer losses from the Government's banking strategy has now reached €28 billion, even as data from the European Central Bank confirms that credit availability for industry continues to worsen;
- domestic and international confidence in the Government's economic plan is evaporating, as evidenced by the alarming rise in the gap between Irish and German borrowing costs;
- the Government plans to cut a further €14 billion from investment spending in between 2011-14 compared with the original commitments in the National Development Plan;

calls on the Government to steer Ireland away from economic disaster by putting jobs, reform and industry growth at the centre of a new confidence-building economic strategy, in particular by:

- using the National Pension Reserve Fund and sales of non strategic state assets to accelerate the investments in water, high speed broadband and clean energy needed to improve competitiveness and stimulate the economy;
- cutting employers' PRSI rates for the low paid;
- scrapping the Travel Tax as part of a deal with the airline industry to expand services and tourist numbers;
- publishing a full audit of lending commitments by AIB and Bank of Ireland;
- providing partial loan guarantee for small and medium sized enterprises; and
- by publishing an action plan for implementing the recommendations of the National Competitiveness Council and the Competition Authority in order to improve Ireland's cost competitiveness."

- believing that it should operate primarily as a House of influence, reform, scrutiny, reflection, consolidation and persuasion and rather than replicate or undermine the Dáil, should act in parallel to it by giving new breadth to the Parliamentary process;
- believing that the House should seek to convince by force of argument and logic rather than compel by weight of numbers and formal powers;
- recognising that the future of Seanad Éireann cannot be secure unless it is seen to have a viable and creative role;
- appalled by the Government’s lack of progress on Seanad reform;
- resolving that the membership of the House should be a fair reflection of Civic society and that the various panels and constituencies should be designed to reinforce that concept and to ensure that the citizens of the State be the main stakeholders;
- believing that every citizen eligible to vote in Dáil General elections should also be eligible to vote in Seanad General elections;
- demands, as an indication of its determination, that from 1 January 2011 all degree holders who are Irish citizens and graduates of Irish universities be entitled to register on the register of Electors for a 6 Seat Higher Education Constituency and be entitled to vote in all Seanad General Elections after that date;
- supporting proposals for a Seanad structured along the following lines:
  - 23 directly elected by national popular vote using a list-PR system;
  - 6 directly elected to a higher education constituency under PR-STV;
  - 23 indirectly elected under PR-STV to a national constituency by Dáil deputies, senators and county councillors;
  - 8 nominated by the Taoiseach; and, an automatically re-elected Cathaoirleach of the Seanad;

demands that, such an arrangement be in place for all Seanad Elections beyond 2012 and demands that the Government should now implement such proposals by bringing forward the necessary legislative and constitutional amendments and putting them to the people by referendum or proposing them to the legislature as appropriate; and decides that, even though citizens may qualify to vote on more than one panel, insists that no voter may exercise more than one vote at an election for Seanad Éireann and, in that regard, must make a personal choice as to on which panel he or she will register.”.
