Leasú:

Amendment:

1. To delete all words after “Seanad Éireann” where it firstly occurs and substitute the following:

“notes that:

- the Oireachtas established the Smithwick Tribunal as a central part of the confidence-building measures which led to major breakthroughs in relations with key parts of the Unionist community;
- the work of the Tribunal demonstrates that the Irish Government is willing to open up to scrutiny all issues, no matter how potentially uncomfortable they are, concerning actions by the State and its officers in the decades before the ceasefires;
- while press briefings have explained the basis for the Government’s proposal to curtail the work of the Tribunal, no information has been given to members of the Oireachtas; and
- while legal costs must be addressed, no move should be made to curtail the work of the Tribunal without a detailed report being submitted to the Oireachtas justifying such a move and following a process of consultation with interested parties in Northern Ireland; and resolves that:

- the Minister for Justice and Equality should prepare for the Oireachtas a detailed report outlining all relevant information and arguments concerning the work of the Tribunal and how, if the work of the Tribunal is curtailed, he proposes to meet the central objective of reaching a clearer conclusion relating to the allegation of collusion; and
 - consultations be undertaken with all interested parties in advance of any proposal to curtail the work of the Tribunal being put to the House.”
- Senators Darragh O’Brien, Thomas Byrne, Mark Daly, Terry Leyden, Marc MacSharry, Paschal Mooney, Brian Ó Domhnaill, Denis O’Donovan, Labhrás Ó Murchú, Ned O’Sullivan, Averil Power, Jim Walsh, Mary White, Diarmuid Wilson.

10. Tairiscintí nach ón Rialtas:
Non-Government Motions:

1. “That Seanad Éireann believes that the tourism sector will be a key driver of Ireland’s economic recovery.

As such, Seanad Éireann:

- commends the importance that the new Government has placed on tourism as a vehicle for Irish economic recovery both within the Programme for Government and the Jobs Initiative;
- welcomes the decision of the Minister for Finance to reduce the level of VAT applied to a range of labour-intensive tourism services to 9% providing a much-needed support to this sector of the economy;
- supports the Minister for Transport, Tourism and Sport’s three-pronged plan to promote inward bound tourism through:
 - abolishing the travel tax, contingent on commitments by airlines to increase inbound capacity from our source markets;
 - the offer by the Dublin Airport Authority of rebates on passenger charges for extra passengers brought in by airlines; and
 - more targeted co-operative marketing of new routes from key source tourism markets by Tourism Ireland, DAA and the airlines to encourage more tourists to fly into Ireland.
- commends the initiatives promoted with regard to domestic tourism which include:
 - a €1 million Discover Ireland promotional campaign;
 - a special fares promotions from Irish Rail; and
 - other initiatives from Fáilte Ireland.
- the introduction by the Minister for Justice, Equality and Law Reform of Ireland’s formal Visa Waiver Programme, which will facilitate and encourage tourism to Ireland from key emerging markets;
- notes the significant value of the recent visits to this State by Queen Elizabeth II and President Barack Obama in promoting Ireland and Irish tourism overseas, which are being built on by Tourism Ireland’s overseas marketing efforts; and
- encourages all those engaged with Irish tourism to work together with the relevant agencies, the new Ministers and Government to ensure that the quality and competitiveness of the Irish tourism offering is continually improved.”.

Amendment:

After “improved” in the last line to insert the following:

1. “; supports the conclusion of the Duffy/Walsh Report which found that lowering of the basic JLC rates is unlikely to have a substantial effect on employment in the tourism and hospitality sector;

- supports the implementation of policies that will attract young people into the tourism sector and encourage them to pursue careers in tourism;
- calls on the government to protect the lowest paid workers in the tourism sector following the publication of the Duffy/Walsh Report; and
- acknowledges the successful completion of the National Convention Centre which will result in a major increase in the numbers of visitors to Dublin over the coming years.”.
 - Senators Darragh O’Brien, Thomas Byrne, Mark Daly, Terry Leyden, Marc MacSharry, Paschal Mooney, Brian Ó Domhnaill, Denis O’Donovan, Labhrás Ó Murchú, Ned O’Sullivan, Averil Power, Jim Walsh, Mary White, Diarmuid Wilson.

Leasú ar Leasú 1:

Amendment to Amendment 1:

1. After “years” in the last line to add the following

- “— calls on the Government to reinstate funding for Regional Airports in the form of the Airport Management Operation Expenditure Subvention (OPEX), as regional airports are crucial in attracting tourists to areas such as the West of Ireland, and in providing employment to local economies in a general sense;
- supports the advancements and acceleration of the Western Rail corridor and the full implementation of Transport 21;
- supports the development of the road infrastructure to open up the West of Ireland to exploit fully the enormous potential for developing tourism in the west, and in particular the A5 dual carriageway from Aughnacloy to Derry, which will be of crucial strategic importance in attracting tourists to the North West, and which the Taoiseach committed to in advance of the election;
- calls on the Government to expedite the rates re-evaluation review, in light of the burden which the Hotel and hospitality sector faces in the current climate;
- dlú a chuir le cuir i bhfeidhm an straitéis 20 bliana don ghaeilge, chun na deiseanna a bhaineann le turasóiracht teanga bhunaithe a fhorbairt agus a mhéadú (calls on the Government to swiftly implement the provisions of the 20 Year Irish Language Strategy in order that the potential which exists in language related tourism can be developed and enhanced);
- notes that tourists are attracted to visit all parts of Ireland and believes that there is a need to realise fully the potential of All Ireland Tourism; and
- calls on the Government, with our partners in terms in the North, to investigate the potential of a single tourism body to deliver the effective, efficient and co-ordinated promotion of the whole island as a tourist destination, and to eliminate any duplication which exists currently between the various tourism bodies, north and south.”.
