87. Tairiscintí nach ón Rialtas:
Non-Government Motions:

1. “That Seanad Éireann:

- recognises that for nearly four decades, the Iranian regime has been condemned for its continued gross violations of human rights;
- acknowledges that more than 120,000 activists of democracy and human rights in Iran have been arbitrarily arrested, tortured and executed;
- notes that in the summer of 1988, more than 30,000 political prisoners were massacred in only two months for opposing the religious dictatorship and supporting the democratic movement the People’s Mujahedin Organisation of Iran (PMOI) and that Amnesty International called this massacre a ‘Crime Against Humanity’ and that its perpetrators must be brought to justice; according to the United Nations, the Iranian regime is the world’s number one executioner per capita;
- takes into account that despite such repression, in January 2018, the world witnessed a wave of uprisings and protests by the Iranian people, which soon expanded to more than 140 cities; where people chanted ‘reformists, hard-liners, the game is now over’, ‘Down with Khamenei and Rouhani’, ‘No to Gaza no to Syria our life is for Iran’ and ‘Leave Syria alone, think about us!’;

- fully recognises that these actions demonstrate the true will of the Iranian people for changing the religious dictatorship and popular rejection of the regime's expansion of terrorism and warmongering in the region;
 - declares solidarity with the Iranian people and supports their democratic objectives;
 - acknowledges that the regime's president, its supreme leader and many other regime officials, have also admitted to the key role of the main Iranian opposition party and their supporters in organising these protests and their continuity;
 - notes that the era has changed in Iran and that people have risen up for democratic change and the establishment of freedom in Iran, which will translate into peace and security in the wider region;
 - calls on the Irish and European Governments, as well as the international community, to alter their policies of soft line approach into decisiveness;
 - calls for the Iranian regime's terrorist Quds Force, Hezbollah and the Iranian Revolutionary Guard Corps (IRGC) to be expelled from the region;
 - calls on the Irish Government and the international community to side with the Iranian people and recognise the National Council of Resistance of Iran (NCRI) as a viable alternative to this faltering theocratic regime;
 - supports the 10-point platform of the NCRI President-elect Mrs. Maryam Rajavi, for establishing a Democratic Republic based on the separation of religion and state, sexual, ethnic and religious equality, devoid of a nuclear programme, the abolition of the death penalty, peaceful co-existence and commitment to international conventions and laws to guarantee popular rule, development and progress in Iran and the wider world;
 - recognises that it is time for the international community to stand on the right side of history on this issue;
 - calls for relations with the regime to be made contingent upon an end to torture, executions, ballistic missiles and the spread of terrorism and war in the region;
 - expresses solidarity with the grand convention of the Iranian people in Paris on 30th June in support of the uprisings in Iran for the establishment of freedom and democracy;
 - instructs the Cathaoirleach to forward this resolution to the President of Ireland, the Taoiseach, the Minister for Foreign Affairs and Trade, the EU Foreign Policy Chief, the European Parliament and the EU Commission.”

6. “That Seanad Éireann:

- agrees that Brexit is exposing a general implementation gap and failure with respect to key concepts and commitments of the Good Friday Agreement; that the birth right provisions contained within the Agreement are not well understood and are not reflected in law, policy and practice; that this is illustrative of only one problem that faces northern-born Irish citizens now and into the future and why special arrangements are urgently needed as part of the Brexit negotiations;
 - notes the concerns, frustrations and fears being expressed by Irish citizens in the North that the special arrangements on citizenship that were promised in the Joint Report of December 2017 have not been delivered thus far;
 - agrees that under the Good Friday Agreement people born in the North of Ireland have a right to be, and to be accepted as, Irish or British or both, and opposes the universal imposition by the British Home Office of British Citizenship on everyone born in the North;
 - calls on the Irish Government and their partners in the EU to ensure that Britain codifies in law the citizenship rights provisions of the Good Friday Agreement and that Irish/EU citizens in the North are fully protected and their rights upheld.”

- further expresses our solidarity and support for the principles of a free, open and democratic press as protected by Article 10 of the European Convention on Human Rights;

- declares our support and solidarity with the campaigning families of those murdered at Loughinisland and calls for a full, independent and immediate investigation into the allegations brought to light by the award winning film ‘No Stone Unturned’.”
