- condemns the ruling by An Bord Pleanála to allow for the demolition of another historic Dublin landmark, The O’Rahilly’s house at 40 Herbert Park, Ballsbridge, Dublin 4, to make way for the development of luxury accommodation;
  - calls on the Minister for Housing, Local Government and Heritage to make a statement on the matter and on the need to protect our historical built heritage;
  - agrees that it is now more important than ever to take the initiative in order to ensure that further aspects of our history are not erased in the name of private profit, especially historic buildings and areas related to our revolutionary heritage;

given the preceding, as well as the fact that we are in the midst of commemorating the Decade of Centenaries:

- calls on the Government to purchase the remainder of the full terrace of houses on Moore Street, Dublin 1, not currently in State ownership, so that this important street can be fully developed into a revolutionary and cultural quarter worthy of the history of the area, that respectfully and proudly tells the story of the Easter Rising and the struggle for Irish freedom, as well as becoming a must-see tourist destination and place for study, research, education and understanding of our past, present and future.”

3. “That Seanad Éireann:

notes:

- with deep concern and disappointment, the recent announcement by Bus Éireann that it proposes to suspend several ‘Expressway’ routes between Dublin and other cities across the island;
- the significant economic, social and environmental impact the removal of these services will have on the communities and areas most impacted and the wider implications throughout the rest of Ireland;

understands:

- the difficult circumstances faced by service providers in the context of Covid-19 and shares the concerns of the many workers and commuters who will be detrimentally impacted by Bus Éireann’s proposed move;

agrees:

- that it is unacceptable that a sustainable funding plan has not been put in place for our public transport network during the ongoing pandemic;

and calls:

- on the Minister for Climate Action, Communications Networks and Transport, and the Government to urgently intervene in order to ensure that Bus Éireann has adequate funding to maintain these crucial routes.”

4. “That Seanad Éireann:

acknowledges:

- families, carers and service providers have been stretched to incredible lengths, many to breaking point throughout the course of this pandemic;
- the personal toll and long-term impact of the withdrawal of care and supports for people with disabilities, their families and their carers is deeply worrying;
- due to Covid-19, disability services that rely on voluntary fundraising to meet operating costs have been unable to do so;

- services are suffering from chronic underfunding which has resulted in unmet need exacerbated by Covid-19;
- reopened disability day services are operating at approximately 40 per cent capacity;
- service providers submitted their funding requirements to the Health Service Executive in mid-June; and
- the Government's allocation of €10 million in additional funding to day services and home support services for disability service users is insufficient and will not meet the urgent Covid-19 related costs for service providers, community and home support;

recognises:

- that Ireland's ratification of the United Nations Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities requires progressive implementation; and
- the innovative and committed response of disability and dementia service providers in the delivery of care and support for people with disabilities and their families throughout this pandemic; and calls on the Government to:

- provide the funding required to fully reopen day and other essential disability services to implement all Covid-19 related protocols; and
- provide the additional funding, resources and capital investment required to guarantee sustainable capacity within disability and dementia services.”

6. “That Seanad Éireann:

acknowledges that:

- Ireland recognises the contribution young people make to our society, including volunteering in their communities and through their advocacy on national and global issues;

- the Thirty-first Amendment of the Constitution enshrined the rights of the child in Irish law;
- the establishment of the Department of Children, Equality, Disability, Integration and Youth was the express provision by Government to ensure the vindication of those rights;
- year on year since the establishment of the Department it has received increased funding; we welcome the increase of €5m in funding for youth services in Budget 2021, bringing the annual investment to €70m in funding for youth services nationwide, to benefit youth organisations and their work supporting young people throughout the country;
- the youth of our country have been stoic in the face of considerable challenges to their quality of life and opportunity throughout this pandemic;
- youth can be often portrayed negatively; we strongly reject this unfair characterisation of young people, and instead commend young people as they navigate the unique challenges they experience, for instance they cannot meet in each other's homes, they cannot meet in their youth and sports activities, they have no social outlet, and have been denied some of the events that are their rite of passage;
- young people have been disproportionately impacted in their ability to work and earn their own money, and consequently disadvantaged in their own agency during this pandemic;

calls on the Government to:

- recognise the unique challenges affecting our country's youth;
- create channels of engagement, traditional or otherwise, to ensure that the voice of young people and their needs are respected and heard;
- take action in accordance with their needs, as expressed by them.”

7. “That Seanad Éireann:

recognises that:

- post offices serve a vital social and economic role in their communities;
- there is a very specific commitment in the Programme for Government to protect the postal network;
- rural and small urban post offices, which are mostly run by independent postmasters, have had their income and footfall greatly reduced;
- many small post offices are now operating on the equivalent of the national minimum wage;
- Grant Thornton has predicted that 885 post offices will cease to exist by July 2021; and
- if footfall and incomes are not improved then the post office network will be decimated; and calls on the Government to:

- act on its commitment as outlined in the Programme for Government;
- implement an action plan for the post office network within three months;
- implement a new community banking service operated by An Post to be made available in all post offices throughout the country; this post community bank could be based on either the New Zealand Kiwibank model or the German Sparkassen model, both of which have been found to be valid models;
- consider a once-off capital investment fund for the further modernisation of the post office network to enable the widespread provision of banking services in rural and disadvantaged urban areas, most of which have been completely abandoned by the current banking model;
- ensure that the provision of all over-the-counter services relating to Government Departments must be tendered for on the basis of both social and economic grounds, to include rural Ireland in any future growth;
- ensure that all business previously identified by Grant Thornton, the former Oireachtas Joint Committee on Transport and Communications and the Post Office Network Business Development Group must be implemented;

- establish a working group to identify the potential for local post offices to act as hubs to facilitate other services such as health, transport, agriculture, etc., and to act as a one-stop-shop for Government services as committed to in the Programme for Government;
  - strongly consider committing funds, while the above measures are being implemented, to ensure no more downward pay reviews to post offices which will make them uneconomical and have the effect of closure by a thousand cuts;
  - ensure that a five-year holding plan will be put in place while these changes are being implemented or there will be no network left to salvage; and
  - recommends that An Post be invited before the Joint Committee on Transport and Communications Networks to outline their plan for the future of the post office network.”

9. “That Seanad Éireann:

recognises that clean water is a basic human right of every inhabitant of this country and acknowledges that access to clean water and sanitation is also a United Nation’s Sustainable Development Goal that Ireland has signed up to, and the need to protect it from source to sea and everything along the way, rivers, lakes and groundwater;

notes the following commitments in the Programme for Government:

- to ensure the provision of safe drinking water and the proper treatment of wastewater will remain a priority for the Government;
- to refer the issue of the environment, including water, and its place in the Constitution, to a relevant Joint Oireachtas Committee for consideration;
- to retain Irish Water in public ownership as a national, stand-alone, regulated utility;
- to ensure Irish Water is sufficiently funded to make the necessary investment in

- drinking water and wastewater infrastructure;
- to mandate Irish Water to develop plans to ensure security of supply and sufficient capacity in drinking and wastewater networks to allow for balanced regional development;
  - to fund Irish Water's capital investment plan for drinking water and wastewater infrastructure on a multi-annual basis and deliver the €8.5 billion funding package committed to in 'Project Ireland 2040';
  - to support the take-up of Irish Water's Small Towns and Villages Growth Programme 2020-2024, which will provide water and wastewater growth capacity in smaller settlements that would otherwise not be provided for in Irish Water's capital investment plan;
  - to ensure that the Rural Regeneration and Development Fund supports the development of such projects;
  - to support continued investment in reducing leakage across the network;
  - to fully consider the review from the Commission for Regulation of Utilities to Irish Water's proposed approach to the Water Supply Project for the Eastern and Midlands Region;
  - to develop a scheme between local authorities and Irish Water to provide drinking water fountains nationwide to reduce plastic bottle litter, as modelled in Ennistymon, Co Clare;
  - to continue to help fund upgrades to wells;
  - to continue to help fund upgrades to domestic wastewater treatment systems, including septic tanks;
  - to review and work to improve the inspection regime for the 500,000 domestic wastewater systems and incentivise upgrading works;
  - to ensure that Irish Water progresses works to reduce the number of schemes on the Environmental Protection Agency's (EPA) Remedial Action List;
  - to support Irish Water in its programme to remove lead pipes from the public supply;
  - to ensure that the State complies with the EU Water Framework Directive which mandates a catchment-based approach to water resource management; Irish Water is mandated to implement this and must be sufficiently funded to do this;
  - to expand programmes, including the Agriculture Sustainability Support and Advisory Programme (ASSAP), and work with farmers, industry, and advisory services, to protect and deliver improvements in water quality;
  - to launch a new revised and strengthened River Basin Management Plan in 2022, drawing on a collaborative approach between all stakeholders;
  - to ensure that Irish Water develops Drinking Water Safety Plans to protect abstraction sources and reduces public health risks, including Trihalomethane (THMs) exceedances in treatment plants;
  - to continue to support the Local Authority Waters Programme and expand the Community Water Development Fund;
  - to support the National Federation of Group Water Schemes, to ensure that issues of quality and security of supply are addressed;
  - to continue to invest in a multi-annual capital funding programme to improve the quality of drinking water in group water schemes, while protecting water quality;
  - to support the work of the Water Services Innovation Fund, which aims to investigate solutions for promoting greater efficiency in water usage;
  - to continue to work with An Fóram Uisce to review and develop water quality strategies;
  - to commission a range of research projects to explore innovative ways of improving our water infrastructure and reducing consumption;
  - to reorient the agri-environment to deliver more, in the short-term on water quality through an ambitious ECO-scheme under Pillar 1 of the CAP, rewarding farmers who deliver enhanced environmental performance including improving water quality; the conclusion of the current CAP at the end of 2020 provides a significant opportunity to pilot this agri-environment scheme during the transition period, supported by additional exchequer funding; the scheme will seek to include farmers not currently in GLAS, who previously participated in AEOS, and those exiting GLAS; this pilot will inform the shape of the flagship agri-environment scheme for the next CAP;

- to ensure that Bord na Móna is required to take into account climate, biodiversity, and water objectives, as they deliver on their commercial mandate, through an amendment to the Turf Development Acts 1998;

notes with concern the following issues that need to be addressed:

- infrastructure deficits in Ireland impact on the provision of safe and secure drinking water;
- infrastructure deficits lead to pollution and environmental damage;
- infrastructure deficits present a challenge to achieving sustainable development across urban and rural Ireland;
- continued investment in infrastructure coupled with innovative and modern approaches is absolutely necessary and fast becoming an emergency, to ensure the supply of good quality drinking water and the appropriate treatment of wastewater to protect our waterways and our health;
- the EPA Wastewater Treatment Report 2019 which highlights:
  - 19 large urban areas failed to meet mandatory EU standards; these 19 areas generate more than half of Ireland's sewage;
  - raw sewage from 35 towns and villages flows into our waters every day;
  - delays and uncertainty in infrastructure delivery are prolonging risks to the environment and public health; Irish Water has no clear action programme or timeframe to improve treatment at almost half the areas (23 of 48) where wastewater is a significant threat to inland and coastal waters at risk of pollution;
  - 113 priority areas where improvements are needed to prevent water pollution, eliminate discharges of raw sewage, meet EU treatment standards and protect bathing waters and freshwater pearl mussels;
- the EPA Water Quality in 2019 Indicators Report which states, in relation to:

Rivers

- that nearly half (47%) of river sites have unsatisfactory nitrate concentrations. 44% of sites are showing an increasing nitrate trend for the period 2013-2019;
- that over one-third (34%) of sites have unsatisfactory phosphate concentrations; one-quarter (26%) of sites are showing an increasing phosphate trend for the period 2013-2019;
- 43% of river water bodies (1,002) are in moderate or worse quality;

Lakes

- 46% of lakes are in moderate or worse biological quality;
- over a quarter of lakes (27%) had unsatisfactory total phosphorus concentrations with 22% showing an increasing trend;

Estuaries and Coastal Waters

- over one-fifth (22%) of estuarine and coastal water bodies have unsatisfactory dissolved inorganic nitrogen (DIN) concentrations; the highest DIN concentrations are in the south and southeast of the country;

- loads of total nitrogen and total phosphorus to the marine environment from our rivers have increased by 24% (13,559 tonnes) and 31% (338 tonnes) respectively since 2012 - 2014;

Groundwaters

- over one-fifth (22%) of sites have high (>25mg/l N03) nitrate concentrations and three sites exceed the drinking water standard (50 mg/l N03);
- almost half (49%) of all sites have increasing nitrate concentrations for the period 2013 -2019;
- 8% of sites have unsatisfactory phosphate concentrations;
- the EPA's Integrated Assessment 2020 which notes:
  - nutrient pollution (caused by too much nitrogen and phosphorus in our waters) is the key water quality issue impacting on our rivers, lakes and estuaries;
  - that there is a need to use less nitrogen fertiliser and use it more efficiently, given that for example 367,364 tonnes of nitrogen fertiliser were applied in 2019;
  - some agricultural activities pose a significant risk to drinking water sources through the storage and use of pesticides and through microbial contamination;
  - that drinking water quality is lower in private supplies, that private supplies mostly serve rural areas, and it is estimated that up to 30% of private wells in operation in Ireland are contaminated with E. coli; this lower quality can be caused by septic tanks, landspreading of slurry, animals grazing near the wellhead, and chemical and fuel storage tanks;

further notes:

- all policies regarding water must work in tandem with policy on climate and biodiversity;
- regarding biodiversity, action must be consistent with policies on protection and restoration as outlined in the Convention on Biological Diversity, as well as national and EU policy goals;
- regarding climate mitigation, the process of collecting, treating and supplying water and wastewater needs to decarbonise, including the climate cost of embodied carbon in new infrastructure;
- regarding climate adaptation, our water supply and wastewater treatment infrastructure must be protected from the effects of climate change;

and calls on the Government to provide for the management, treatment and distribution of safe water through systems in public or community ownership, ensuring the protection and restoration of the ecological status of water bodies.”
