calls on the Government:

- to withdraw from the Energy Charter Treaty.”

3. “That Seanad Éireann:

welcomes:

- the Report of the Night-Time Economy Taskforce published in September 2021;
- the Programme for Government commitment to reform licensing laws, application processes and to conduct a full review of policies governing night-time culture;

commends:

- ‘Give Us The Night’ and all campaigners advocating for positive changes to nightlife in Ireland;

recognises that:

- there has been a failure to sufficiently update licensing laws;
- night-life and night-time entertainment in cities and towns is under severe threat;
- property costs, prohibitive insurance premiums, restrictive licensing laws and associated fees have a crippling effect on businesses and cultural activity;
- of the 522 nightclubs in operation in the year 2000, only 85 remain;
- the policy focus relating to nightlife and the night-time economy has revolved solely around alcohol rather than the holistic, community and societal benefits of night-time culture;
- night-life is about communities and culture, for people of all ages, those who consume alcohol and those who don’t;
- public transport and taxi services are essential components of the night-time economy;
- since 2019, 2,562 taxis have been lost from the transport system with the resulting shortage of taxis now impacting the night-time economy;

notes that:

- night-life and the night-time economy are vital to the growth and development of the arts and culture sector;
- existing licensing laws prevent not-for-profit arts centres, cultural buildings, theatres and galleries from diversifying their programming and income streams and deny greater employment opportunities to artists and arts workers and valuable cultural offerings to audiences and local communities;

further notes:

- the workers' rights issues that exist in the night-time economy, including unpaid wages, lack of collective bargaining, the denial of legal breaks and an expectation that workers perform duties unpaid, such as cleaning-up after closing;

calls for:

- the update and modernisation of licensing laws and costs;
- the reform of trading hours;
- a new annual nightclub licence;
- an end to early closing on Sundays;
- the abolition of Special Exemption Orders;
- greater access to the night-time market for arts centres, theatres and galleries with an appropriate licence renewed annually;
- the increased use of the National Cultural Institutions Licence;
- a new licence for not-for-profits, including for one-off events;
- greater use of existing State-owned indoor and outdoor spaces, including cultural buildings and heritage sites for entertainment and events;
- new locations and districts to be identified where nightlife can thrive;
- a scheme to support late night entertainment in cafés and more options for alcohol-free events;

4. “That Seanad Éireann:

recalls that:

- Ireland has signed and ratified the European Convention for the Protection of Animals kept for Farming Purposes (‘the Convention’);
- the European Union has been promoting animal welfare for over forty years, gradually improving the welfare standards in respect of animals kept for farming purposes;
- the Government has reaffirmed its commitment to promoting the welfare of all animals in the Animal Welfare Strategy for Ireland 2021-2025 (‘the Strategy’);

agrees:

- that animals are entitled to the widely acknowledged following ‘five freedoms’, which are reflected in the Convention:
 - i) freedom from hunger and thirst;
 - ii) freedom from discomfort;
 - iii) freedom from pain, injury and disease;
 - iv) freedom to express normal behaviour; and
 - v) freedom from fear and distress;

acknowledges:

- the positive contribution to date on the part of this Government in devising and publishing the Strategy; in creating a stand-alone Animal Welfare Division within the Department of Agriculture, Food and the Marine; and in providing for a doubling of funding for animal welfare organisations;

supports:

- the recognition by all European Union Member States in Article 13 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union, together with the acknowledgement in the Strategy that animals are sentient beings who can perceive their environment and experience sensations such as pain and suffering or pleasure and comfort;

- the commitment by all European Union Member States in Article 13 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union to pay full regard to the welfare requirements of animals;
- the commitment by the European Commission in its Farm to Fork Strategy to revise the European Union’s animal welfare legislation by the end of 2023, in order to align it with the latest available scientific evidence, broaden its scope, facilitate greater enforcement, and ultimately ensure a higher level of animal welfare;
- the commitments made in respect of animal welfare in the Programme for Government: ‘Our Shared Future’;

calls on the Government and the Minister for Agriculture, Food and the Marine to:

- continue to work with the European Commission and with Ireland’s fellow European Union Member States to uphold the Convention and Article 13 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union; and to expedite the revision of the European Union’s animal welfare legislation;
- legislate for a minimum requirement that all shipments carrying live animal exports to third countries carry a veterinarian on board, and to take immediate steps to vigorously pursue value-enhancing market avenues as an alternative to live exports;
- commence all sections of the Animal Health and Welfare and Forestry (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 2022, such that the prohibition on fur farming as provided for under that Act takes effect;
- consider section 12(9) of the Horse and Greyhound Racing Act, 2001 (as amended), and adopt a position as to whether the strategic plan submitted to the Minister for Agriculture, Food and the Marine by Bord na gCon in accordance with that Act is deficient and/or whether reasonable progress on the implementation of that plan has been made, such that instalments otherwise payable to Bord na gCon should be withheld;
- take immediate steps to uphold the provisions of Council Directive 2008/120/EC laying down minimum standards for the protection of pigs, in particular those provisions relating to the practices of tail-docking and reduction of corner teeth;
- review the sentencing regime under the Animal Health and Welfare Act 2013 as a matter of priority;
- regulate the breeding, ownership, sale, or supply of exotic pet species;
- allocate increased resources to the enforcement of the Animal Health and Welfare (Sale or Supply of Pet Animals) Regulations 2019;
- engage constructively with Seanad Éireann in considering the provisions of the Animal Health and Welfare (Dogs) Bill 2022.”
