Cultural and Educational Panel

1. “That Seanad Éireann:

- notes that the student profile of those studying medicine and law in our universities continues to be dominated by those from more affluent socio-economic backgrounds;
- further notes that there are perceived and actual barriers to the medical and legal professions for those from less affluent socio-economic backgrounds;
- calls for an examination of the barriers to entry into the medical and legal professions to be undertaken by the Department for Further and Higher Education, Research, Innovation and Science, in conjunction with the Higher Education Authority and the relevant professional bodies, and that a report outlining suggested methods to ensure greater opportunities for access be presented before Seanad Éireann within six months.”

[8th September, 2022]

130. Tairiscintí nach ón Rialtas:
Non-Government Motions:

1. “That Seanad Éireann:

notes that:

- in the early years of Irish statehood two institutions, ACC and ICC, were set up in recognition of the importance of financial services to facilitate the growth of our agricultural and industrial sectors;
- ACC and ICC were allowed to become part of larger private commercial banks and now have ceased to exist as all foreign owned retail banks have left or are leaving the Irish market;
- Ulster Bank has one million current accounts including 70,000 commercial accounts and 301,000 deposit accounts, KBC has over 300,000 current accounts. All these accounts will have to be closed within the next 12 months, with most requiring new accounts to be opened elsewhere;
- Irish mortgage rates are the second highest in the Eurozone after Greece and double the currency bloc's average rate;
- banks regularly blame the increased capital charge for the higher mortgage rate, but a Goodbody Stockbrokers' analysis in July 2021 found the real difference is in the banks' operating costs compared to their EU counterparts;
- the report on Local Public Banking in Ireland and the Indecon Report both concluded there was no economic case for a public bank in Ireland but were based on a much different banking landscape than currently exists;

recognises that:

- the choices of individuals and companies are now severely limited regarding the provision of basic financial services especially with local access;

- both personal and business consumers are paying over the odds on their mortgages and loans with only the prospect of increased interest rates going forward;
- reliance of our remaining financial institutions on online solutions actively discriminates against certain cohorts of the population;
- credit unions have limited scope to provide financial services to business customers e.g. personal current accounts only, and lack the expertise to fully serve this important sector; credit unions are not banks and do not want to be banks;
- the lack of availability of, and appetite for, credit by our SMEs, is constraining the growth of our economy as these are the backbone of the economy and provide the vast majority of employment;

acknowledges that:

- the Banking Review has commenced and is due to report by end of November 2022;
- separately, the review of the credit union movement is due to be completed imminently, members of the Government openly talk of the credit unions filling the gap left by Ulster Bank and KBC thus pre-empting the conclusions of this review along with the Banking Review;

and calls on the Government to:

- take immediate action, using the expertise available to it, to design and implement a comprehensive public bank system that makes full use of the remaining local financial services infrastructure to deliver a banking service that serves our local communities and businesses.”

– Senators Marie Sherlock, Annie Hoey, Rebecca Moynihan, Mark Wall.

[14th October, 2022]

2. “That Seanad Éireann:

notes that:

- CERN is one of the leading scientific research organisations globally;
- Ireland is one of the few European Countries not in membership;

welcomes:

- the announcement by the Minister for Further and Higher Education, Research, Innovation and Science, that he intends to bring a paper to Government setting out Ireland’s intention to apply for membership;

calls on:

- the Government to proceed with Ireland’s membership of CERN;
- the Department of Further and Higher Education, Research, Innovation and Science to develop, in conjunction with our universities, research agencies and interested parties, a strategy to support our membership and to ensure that Ireland can both contribute to and gain from our membership.”

[13th February, 2023]

6. “That Seanad Éireann calls on Israel to halt immediately all building of illegal settlements in Palestinian territories, to respect the religious status quo in Jerusalem, and calls on the Irish Government to support legislation to end Irish trade with Israeli businesses that operate in the occupied settlements.”

– Senators Victor Boyhan, Michael McDowell, Tom Clonan, Gerard P. Craughwell, Sharon Keogan, David Norris.

[13th February, 2023]

7. “That Seanad Éireann:

- condemns the imprisonment of Mr. Bernard Phelan, a citizen of Ireland, in Mashhad, Iran since 3rd October, 2022; and

- calls on:

- the Iranian authorities to release him immediately; and

- on the Irish Government to raise in every appropriate venue, including the United Nations and the European Union, its demand for his immediate release.”
- Senators Michael McDowell, Victor Boyhan, Sharon Keogan, Gerard P. Craughwell, David Norris, Tom Clonan, Rónán Mullen.

[24th March, 2023]

8. “That Seanad Éireann:

recalls that:

- the Citizens’ Assembly and Joint Committee on Gender Equality recommended a referendum to replace Article 41.2 of the Constitution obliging the State to take reasonable measures to support care within the home and wider family, and the Government has committed to a referendum on this in November, 2023;
- there are over 500,000 family carers in Ireland, and unpaid family carers save the State €20 billion a year, while the 2022 Census shows the number of unpaid carers increased by 53 per cent to over 299,000 from 2016;
- the Government committed to introduce a pension solution for long term carers in January 2024;

notes that:

- the restrictive means test and low rate of Carer’s Allowance payment and the complex application appeals process for Domiciliary Care Allowance (DCA) are not sufficient to meet the financial needs of those caring for dependents;
- research by the Vincentian Partnership for Social Justice in 2022 shows income supports for family carers are inadequate in supporting low-income households caring for a child with a profound intellectual disability to meet a minimum essential standard of living, with an additional weekly care cost of €244, being more than the maximum rate of Carer’s Allowance;
- it is 33 years since Carer’s Allowance was introduced and there have been repeated calls for the abolition of the means test which has been estimated to cost €397 million;
- both the National Economic and Social Council and Joint Committee on Gender Equality recommend that consideration be given to a participation income for carers;
- if the person you are caring for is under 16 you must be getting DCA to qualify for Carer’s Allowance, but nearly 38 per cent of claims for DCA were rejected in 2022, while over 70 per cent of over 2,000 rejected cases were successful on appeal in that year indicating major problems with the current application and approval system;
- Family Carer’s Ireland has called for the weekly rate of Carer’s Allowance and Carer’s Benefit to be increased to €325 in Budget 2024;

agrees that:

- the current rate of Carer's Allowance undervalues care work and is the only social protection payment where recipients are expected to provide full-time work and in return receive just €16 more than the basic social welfare rate;

and calls on the Government to:

- carry out an evaluation of Carer's Allowance and other social protection income supports to ensure it meets the needs of parents, guardians and next of kin caring for relatives, as part of a full cost of care review that also calculates the financial cost and societal value of unpaid care;
- at a minimum in Budget 2024 increase the Carer's Allowance income to €1,000 for couples and €500 for single carers, and outline a pathway to abolish the means test by 2027;
- increase the rate of Carer's Allowance and Carer's Benefit by a minimum of €25 in the Budget with a pathway to a Minimum Essential Standard of Living and the Family Carer's Ireland target of €325 a week;
- commit to increasing the rate of the Carer's Support Grant to €2,000 in Budget 2024;
- reform the application process for DCA which is not sufficient to meet the financial needs of those caring for dependents, raise the age limit to 18, and increase the rate of payment;
- replace the Mobility Allowance and Motorised Transport Grant with the long promised Transport Support Scheme, and increase funding to the Housing Adaptation Grant;
- commit the additional €3m annually needed to fully fund the Carers' Guarantee."
